

Addition of the 5.470-5.725 GHz band to the U-NII band should be encouraged. The new spectrum should be reserved for "broadband" digital technology. Dynamic Frequency Selection (DFS), with radar detection, is an acceptable method to protect incumbent users. DFS should only be required for